

HHS125: Design Your Life I – What Could I Do With My Life Fall Semester, 2018

Six Word Memoirs

Tuesday 9am

- I don't care, I'm still funny.
- Full of tequila and still conscious.
- Becoming a better version of myself.
- Give them something to talk about.
- Vision without execution is just hallucination.
- It's okay not to be okay.
- Eat flowers and don't be afraid.
- Flowers grow after being stepped on.
- Broken pieces can always be fixed.
- Problems? Focus on finding a solution.
- Oh. My bad. I was asleep.
- I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
- Music is everywhere. Listen for it.
- Out of struggle, I rise up.

Tuesday 2pm

- Loving wholeheartedly, laugh hysterically, living passionately.
- Inspirational desire to achieve conquering challenges.
- Life can hurt; it gets better.
- Stereotypes break people, I break stereotypes.
- I fear living an average life.
- Strengths comes from peaks and valleys.
- My running shoes are my therapist.
- Giving up doesn't get you anywhere.
- I'm not done writing my story.
- Life is bigger than six words.
- Dark places have room for light.
- For every high, there's a low.
- Life's a journey, enjoy the climb.
- My life is a beautiful struggle.
- Will I dance for you Jesus?
- You're the rainbow after the storm.
- My path changed, not the destination.
- Pray hard and love your life.

Wednesday 9am

- Life is measured by the memories.
- Take a slice out of my life.
- Life is short. Enjoy it all.
- Keep calm and just add glitter.
- Live one day at a time.
- You gotta keep your head up.

- Stop the hate and change fate.
- Loving the person I am becoming.
- I am content but always progressing.
- My parents' decisions don't define me.
- Son. Only child. Tenacious, giving leader.
- I didn't think I could shine.
- I found true happiness in myself.
